

Let a free market prevail and allow satellite radio to compete on an even playing field with traditional broadcast radio. I pay for XM satellite radio because it provides a superior product. Satellite TV has local channels, satellite radio should be no different and be able to provide localized content.